Right On... FROM THE PUBLISHER'S PEN

I SHALL PASS THIS WAY BUT ONCE THEREFORE ANY GOOD THAT I CAN DO OR ANY KINDNESS THAT I CAN SHOW LET ME DO IT NOW FOR I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY AGAIN.

A lot of people are wondering right now what is going on in Angola. But I feel that the Angolans should settle their own internal problems. Americans, black and white, should concern themselves with the racial and economic problems within this country rather than become involved in Angola's civil war. The United States is not interested in the freedom and liberty of the Angolan people. We're there for financial reasons. And we're there for their natural resources.

Africa is the richest continent in the world in natural resources. And the United States, Russia and China are involved in Angola because they want a pay-back, and that pay-back is the loss of natural resources for the Angolan people. The United States is not there for any honorable reason. Angola, which is located on the coast of South Africa, is rich in largely untapped and undeveloped resources.....oil, coffee, raw materials and minerals.

Three political factions have fought for control of the Angolan government since the wealthy Portuguese colony gained its independence November 11th. The United States, China, Zaire and South Africa are providing military assistance to two anti-Soviet factions: The National Union for the Total Independence of Angola and the Front for the National Liberation of Angola. The third faction, the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola, led by Dr. Neto, is heavily backed by Soviet aid. It is estimated that so far more than $25 million in United States aid has gone to the anti-Soviet forces, and that another $28 to $35 million has been promised.

President Ford and Secretary of State Kissinger said the U.S. has become involved in Angola because they fear the Soviets may be close to establishing a military force there and making the oi-rich country a Soviet satellite. The administration has also expressed concern that Soviet naval and air bases in Angola could threaten western shipping lanes in the South Atlantic and pose a military threat to Brazil, almost three thousand miles away; and some view a Soviet-controlled Angola as a threat to the white regimes in Rhodesia and South Africa. And there is a general feeling that America cannot afford to justify waging a war in Angola because there is an economic depression there.

America lost 56,000 lives in Viet Nam. That should be enough to teach the United States not to get involved again. It doesn't matter whether the United States wins or Russia wins. The point is that the Angolan people will not be running their government. It is incumbent upon Angolans to settle this dispute themselves.

Then there is the question that was asked: Should blacks go to Angola to work for peace as suggested by Roy Innis, the National Director of the Congress of Racial Equality. But the feeeling generally is that we've got to get ourselves together here in America first. RIGHT ON!

'Sugar' Ray Seals Returns From Vacation

By Roger O. Laskey

"Sugar" Ray Seals left Tacoma in December and returned January 8. In interviewing Sugar Ray I asked him where he went and why. He said he went to St. Croix in the Virgin Islands. His reasons for going were two fold - to visit the bottom half of his family (his father down to his great grand mother) and to enjoy himself with the family, but not to run around. Really, he said it was twenty five days of vacation to think things over and kind of free his mind. I also asked Ray just what he did while at home and he said he went to the beaches, walked, but mostly lounged around the house with his relatives, friends and well-wishers who came to visit him.

I asked Ray what he did when not in training. He said when he is not in training for a bout he is at the Downtown Boys Club training and helping the young fellows out, or he may go out and visit Fort Steilacoom Community College where he was a student. Well by now we got more serious. My first rap was, Ray what is your record? He said, "Thirty one. Twenty eight wins, two draws and one lost." The next question was when is your next fight, and who will be the unlucky one. February 17, 1976 is his next bout, and the unlucky one is Mike Baker. The bout will be in the Seattle Coliseum.

Just a reminder to some: as you may or may not know, Sugar Ray was the only gold medal winner in boxing to return from Germany in 1972. He fought as a junion welter weight at 138 pounds. Ray is a clean living, honest, and sincere young man at the age of 23 years. Let's not wait until he is forty and over the hill before we start supporting him. Let's show him now how much we care and love him. I love the Seattle SuperSonics, and talking to Mr. Jenkins I found out that nearly all their seats have been sold out for the season. What about Sugar Ray? I know he's got a better record. Check it out.....We will talk about Ray's future in our next interview. Ray, I will see you at your next bout, February 17, 1976. Remember - you are not alone.

Mayor Wes Uhlman of Seattle was the guest speaker Saturday, January 10 for the annual Founders' Day program of Iota Mu Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., a national fraternity founded at Cornell University in 1906.

The noon program was held at the Fort Lewis Officers' Club. Mayor Uhlman spoke about the necessity of having qualified minorities in city government. He urged the fraternity to continue to support and encourage Blacks to participate in and seek positions in city government.

Members of Zeta Phi Lambda and Alpha Xi Chapter of Seattle were guests at the luncheon program.

G.R.O.W. Conference To Feature Speakers From U.S. Labor Department

Carmen Maymi, Director of the Women's Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor, will be the keynote speaker at G.RO.W., a women's conference, Sunday, January 25, 1976 at the Seattle Center.

Ms. Maymi, who is responsible for policies and standards to promote women in the labor force, will discuss new legislation and activities which are bringing more women into the labor force. She will also answer questions from the participants. Her presentation is scheduled for 2;30 p.m. in the Rainier Room.

The Growth Resources and Opportunities for Women (G.R.O.W.) conference is sponsored by the Seattle Women's Commission, the Federal Women's Programs and the International Women's Year Committee. A donation of $2 per person is requested at registration, which opens at 9:30 a.m. at the Rainier Room. Childcare will be provided and is free. The conference is open to women of all ages. Men are also invited to participate.

Grants For Food and Hunger Problems Available

The Hunger Action Center is announcing the availability of a $10,000 incentive grant for community groups wanting to develop innovative programs to address food and hunger problems.

Over the last eighteen months, the Center has awarded grants to community garden projects, farmer's markets food buying co-ops, food raising projects, a rural apprenticeship program, nutrition education projects and an information service. Within these projects there has been a wide diversity of local approaches to problems of hunger and malnutrition. In all, thirty grants have been awarded. To date, all of the grants have been for under $3500 (the average grant is $1900). This new grant is the largest one the Center has offered.

Six of the thirty grants have been awarded to community groups in King County. These grants have been to the Cascade Community for a food co-op, CAMP for a farmers' market, Metro Center YMCA to assist food co-ops, Fremont for a recycling center and to Senior Services of Seattle to establish a buying co-op for Title VII feeding programs.

Any community project which can be shown to have a potential effect on problems related to food availability and prices, nutrition, improvement of existing public food programs, public awareness of food and nutrition issues, or other related food and hunger issues, is eligible for consideration for the incentive grant.

Grant requirements include non-profit status of the applicant group and low-income and/or minority involvement. Other important facts in grant decisions include the extent of community involvement, the number of people who will benefit from the program, and the extent to which grant funds will help to initiate ongoing and self-sustaining programs. Center guidelines prohibit the use of grant funds for direct purchase and distribution of food, and for purchase of capital equipment.

The deadline for receipt of applications for the $10,000 incentive grant is February 1, 1976. For further information and grant application forms, contact the Hunger Action Center, Olympia, Washington 98505; phone (206) 866-6695.

The Hunger Action Center seeks innovative solutions to the problems of hunger and malnutrition in Washington State through research, public education and citizen action, and is funded by a grant from the Community Services Administration.

Anti-Redlining Bills to be Introduced by Sen. George Fleming

Senator George Fleming (D-37th) introduced two bills Monday, January 19 which (1) requires the reporting of investments in real estate mortgages by financial institutions and, (2) provides for fairness in lending in real estate mortgages by financial institutions operating in this state.

Senator Fleming said,"These bills are in response to various reports, local and national, that have identified discrimination in mortgage lending practices." This discrimination is commonly referred to as "redlining". Senator Fleming said that "a report by the Central Seattle Community Council Federation documents the withdrawal of local sources of housing loans from the Central Area and Rainier Valley over the past five years. We must put a stop to the practice of denying housing loans on the basis that a specific parcel of real estate is located in a specific geographic area." By redlining, the area becomes dependent on mortgage companies which require higher down payments, higher interest rates and are quicker to foreclose. The federal government and other states are considering similar legislation.

Senators Ruthe Ridder and James A. McDermott are co-sponsors with Senator Fleming.

Seattle Central Contractors to be Represented at Senate Select Committee on Small Business

January 21st, in room 457 of the Russell Senate Office Building in Washington, D.C., testimony will be presented by several small business persons, minority small business associations and S.B.A. officials as to the functioning of the SBA 8(a) Procurement Program and feasible legislative changes to increase its effectiveness.

In a letter sent to THE FACTS, Senator Jacob K. Javits invited FACTS Publisher Fitzgerald Beaver to attend, and also stated:

"Our American society has always prided itself in its policy of insuring for all citizens equal opportunity and access to the economic mainstream of our society. This policy of promoting and advocating the integration of the disadvantaged into the U.S. economic mainstream has been continuously restated in legislation enacted by the Congress and in Executive Orders issued by the President as we have sought to exemplify this policy in our business-oriented and economic activities on a federal level.

"Of the special programs that have evolved as a result of our efforts, the SBA 8(a) contracting program is among the largest business assistance and exemplary federal contracting programs for small businesses owned by socially and economically disadvantaged Americans. Yet, a May 1975 report of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights indicates that despite the successes of the 8(a) program, minority and female owned firms still receive less than 1% of the over 120 billion total dollar value of all government contracts. If the Federal government is to set an example for the nation to follow, this is surely a situation that should be examined."

Mr. Willie Allen of the Central Contractors Association of Seattle will be appearing before the committee.

Bicentennial Workshop

A workshop to assist persons and organizations planning Bicentennial activities is scheduled for 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon, Saturday, January 24 at the 565 Broadway Building in Tacoma.

The workshop will be conducted by members of the faculty of Spokane Falls Community College of Spokane in cooperation with the Tacoma/Pierce County Bicentennial Commission, the Washington State Bicentennial Commission, and the community colleges of the state.

The workshop is part of a threefold project being conducted by the Spokane school under funding by the State Bicentennial Commission. All three activities will tour all 39 counties of the state.

A musical revue of song and dance, "We've Got the Spirit", will highlight great moments from the social, economic and cultural life of the Pacific Northwest. Dates in Pierce County are June 28 and 29.

In August, a forum will be provided for business and education leaders.

There is no charge for the workshop. Its purpose is to provide assistance for planning and producing Bicentennial events and activities. All persons interested are welcome.

Special "idea starters", organizational and promotional tips and overall implementation procedures will be covered by the training teams. In addition, plans will be outlined to show how the community college travelling musical revue program will tie in with the community celebration.

For additional information, call 272-0371 in Tacoma.

Free Lunch Program

St. Leo's Grade School today announced its policy for free and reduced price meals and free milk for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch and Special Milk Programs.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income criteria for determining eligibility:

Family Size	Maximum Family Income for free Meals and Milk	Family Size	Maximum Family Income for Reduced-Price Meals
1	$ 3,230	1	$ 5,040
2	4,240	2	6,620
3	5,250	3	8,200
4	6,260	4	9,770
5	7,190	5	11,210
6	8,110	6	12,650
7	8,950	7	13.970
Each additional family member	750	Each additional family member	1,180

"Income" means income before deductions for income taxes, insurance premiums, bonds, etc. "Income" as used here does not include income used for the following hardship conditions which could not reasonably be anticipated or controlled by the household: (1) Unusually high medical expenses; (2) shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income; (3) special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child; and (4) disaster or casualty losses.

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced-price meals and free milk. In addition, families not meeting these criteria, but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physcial condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms have been sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

In certain cases, foster children also are eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, it should contact the school.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color or national origin.

Under the provisions of the policy the Chairwoman of the School Board will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If he wishes to make a formal appeal, he may make a request either orally or in writing to Mrs. Vera Jenkins, 1419 South Sheridan, Tacoma, WA. 98405, (272-9697), for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced-price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals and milk if the family income falls at or below the levels shown above.

Each school has a copy of the complete policy which may be reviewed by any interested party.

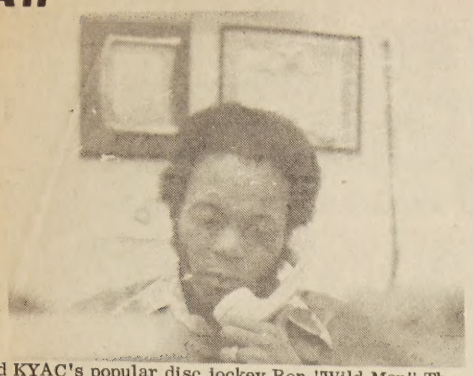
Ron WildmanThomas Leaving The Air

By Roger O. Laskey



KTOY and KYAC's popular disc jockey Ron "Wild Man" Thomas (as many know this fine young man) is more than just a D. J. He has helped the community in more ways than one through his staff and personal efforts. Ron started on the air November 1970 and worked with KYAC for three years in Seattle - playing a double role back and forth. He became very popular on both stations. He first became noticeable on his morning news program, then drifted into the soul spinning. He produced a show at Bates Vocational School called "Soul Seller". He now has a show on Channel 6, Cable T.V., called C & J Express. Ron was instrumental in getting the News Media Action Council started. The movie "All American Girl" and the band "Made To Order" that played from Tacoma came through Ron. The last Wright Park Musical Festival was produced by Ron and his staff. Black Expo '73 was produced with the help of Ron.

I asked Ron why he was leaving the air. His reason was a very positive one, I think. He said he wanted to spend more time in his basic job as Director of Communications & Journalism, being more creative in the community programs and working with the people in general, especially the young people, in bridging the gap, whether it be in music, shows, sports, or just plain rapping, as long as they get the message. I also asked Ron about his goals being more specific and he said he wanted to get his BA degree in Communications and Journalism. I will talk to Ron more at a later date on his retreat. But until then, Ron, we will miss your voice on KTOY, but will see more of you in the community.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

"We need help," said Mrs. Mary Zelin, chairman of the Red Cross volunteers at Madigan Army Medical Center. "We just don't have enough volunteers to do the work."

Mrs. Zelin is inviting anyone willing to spend a few hours helping others each week to volunteer. "I have found this to be a great job for military wives and retirees," she continued, "But everyone is welcome."

Volunteer jobs in the center cover a wide range of tasks and can often be matched to a person's skills or interests. Nurses are especially needed, as well as clerks and receptionists.

"A volunteer may be working anywhere in the center," said Mrs. Zelin. One of the major requirements is willingness to learn."

A basic training session for volunteers is set for Tuesday, January 27. Anyone interested in volunteering should contact Mrs. Zelin or one of the Red Cross staff at 967-6653 or 967-6654.

Something To Think About

by Barbara Henderson

A high school education is not something to play with. It is a very essential part of your education. Some students find themselves not being satisfied at one school, and transferring from one school to another.

The reasons for this vary. Maybe the school doesn't have what you want. But the question is--What do you want?

First of all, when you're a sophomore you should go to the school of your choice, and if you can't deal with the school after you're in it it's your own fault. You don't jump into something you don't know about.

The school I go to-Bellarmine--is benefitting me and it's to my advantage. I go there because I want to and it is being beneficial to me.

If you don't feel this way about the school you attend, you should take another look at your school and yourself.

What do you want? What does your school have to offer you? Think about it.

Entertainment Review

By Roger O. Laskey

The Amvets Hall saw some new musicians over the weekend and they were Hot Ice, a dynamite group from Seattle. They shared the stage with Spice of Life and Readymade Family. They really gave the people their money's worth. Moving along I met some really fine musicians at the Esquire Club Sunday - Wellford Clark, trombone player, Butch Brooks, drummer, Walter Walker, percussions and congas, Lonnie William, base guitar and Obie C. Blue, a writer for 5 Star Music Master who soon will release one of his originals, "The Use Of Love". The stage will be set for the hottest group in town Friday night, Amvets "Fresh".

PEOPLE AROUND TOWN

James Wiekins from Frankfort, Germany is visiting his brother Rickey Lockridge. I met three other brothers from my hometown, Richmond, Virginia, at the Caballeros Club Sunday night - Willie DeVone, Christ Glover, and Carl McDaniel.

You May Be Entitled To a Discount If You Pay Cash

"Credit cards can be a handy substitute for money. But, whether you use a credit card or not, are you paying extra for a credit privilege?, says Ann Parthum, King County Extension Agent for Washington State University.

"Credit card companies charge merchants from two to eight percent for each purchase made by credit. The extra amount is usually added to the price of everything that is sold. That means even if you pay cash every time--you are actually paying for someone else's credit card purchase. If you are tired of paying extra you may be interested in a recent law.

"That new law is the Fair Credit Billing Act which went into effect October 28. The new law permits a store to pay up to a five percent discount to customers who pay in cash. Stores that regularly offer the discount are encouraged to prominently display a notice that discounts are offered. Look for the notice at the door and at cash registers," urges Mrs. Parthum.

"The law does not require merchants to offer the discount. So if you don't ask for it, you probably won't get one. If you want to save money--and five percent can amount to quite a bit--ask about the discount next time you pay cash."

Extension information and programs are available to all citizens without regard to race, color, religion or national origin.

Publications Available Free From the IRS

From annuities to zero balances, the Internal Revenue Service has a free publication to answer nearly every tax question a taxpayer could have.

IRS District Director Michael Sassi announced the availability of more than 80 free publications which can be obtained from the tax agency. Pamphlets covering some of the more common tax topics--for example, moving expenses, sick pay, interest expenses, contributions, and tax benefits for older Americans--are listed in the instruction booklet which taxpayers receive with their IRS-mailed tax forms.

"The publications can be ordered by completing the order form in the booklet or they can be secured from local IRS offices," Sassi said.

DANCES FOR SENIORS

Several months ago a group met with Mayor Gordon N. Johnston and requested that the city give periodic dances where the senior citizens might be able to dance with the Mayor, County Commissioners, and other city officials.

These officials, having a special spark in their hearts for the elderly population, took kindly to this request. The idea was then passed on to the Department of Human Development where plans began to be made.

The first of such scheduled dances will be held Saturday, January 31.

WE FLATTER ourselves by claiming to be rational and intellectual beings, but it would be a great mistake to suppose that men are always guided by reason. We are strange, inconsistent creatures, and act quite as often, perhaps oftener, from prejudice or passion. The result is that you are more likely to carry men with you by enlisting their feelings, than by convincing their reason.
